Practice writing letters BIG at first (skywrite, carpet, sand.) Then, when your student is ready, have your student trace the letters, developing independence with practice. Have your student circle the one he/she likes best each day.

Created by James Tatter for Read WS. We encourage you to copy and use!

Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.

_Nelson Mandela_