

Captain y

Game Instructions:

One Player:

1. Place the game board in front of your student.
2. Remind your student of the y that says /i/ in a one syllable word with the captain y picture.
3. Have your student roll the dice to see how many spaces he/she can move.
4. Then have your student move his/her player as many spaces as he/she rolled. As your student moves his/her player, have him/her read the words.
5. If your student reads a word wrong, have him/her tap it the correct way and move back one space on the game board.
6. Your student's turn is over when he/she reads a word incorrectly or moves the amount that he/she rolled.
7. The goal of the game is to get to the finish line with the fewest mistakes.

I matey, I am
Captain y, but I go
by /i/.
You are my lookout.
If you see a y
at the end of a one syllable word,
you must cry /i/.

If you see a y

You must cry /i/

Captain y's ship
/i/
